

Convocation:

Convocation is an exciting moment to mark the achievements of our students. All students who successfully complete a programme are eligible to participate in this prestigious event.

The Examination Committee sends the data of the final result to the Mumbai University for the degree certificates. The degree distribution ceremony is conducted by the college after the University's degree distribution ceremony.

Report (2019-20)

The annual degree distribution ceremony for the year 2019-20 was held on 18th January, 2020. Mr. Achyut Godbole, renowned entrepreneur, writer and IT expert was chief guest of the function. Lt. Gen. Jagbir Singh, Secretary Somaiya Trust presided over the function. The chief guest was welcomed traditionally by NCC. The Academic procession began with the Controller of Examinations at the helm holding Academic bastion. Principal, Chief Guest, invited personalities, Vice Principal, Deans, Academic and Management Council members and meritorious students took part in the academic procession. All the members were traditionally attired for the Degree distribution ceremony.

The program began with recitation of Somaiya Campus prayer followed by University Song.

The reading of the annual academic report was followed by the Chief guests' talk. The meritorious candidates were called on the dais and degrees were conferred to them at the hands of the Chief Guest. The oath was administered to the students by the Principal which was followed by the Presidential address. The ceremony concluded with the National Anthem.